Meet Our Team

Introducing Danielle Fisher

Inspired by her love for travelling, Danielle started her travel industry career in Scotland. After travelling to Australia on numerous occasions for work and pleasure she took the plunge and moved here, making Melbourne her home since 2010. Danielle joined Globetrotter two years ago with a multitude of experience within the industry and is now an integral part of the Lifestyle team, based in our Melbourne office.

Her passion for travel has led her to amazing places around the globe, with Cuba being one of her favourite destinations. She loves learning about the different cultures as she travels, embracing the destination and trying to experience it like a local. Danielle has her eyes set on Antarctica as a must do "bucket list" journey of a lifetime.
