Samsara Ubud

Samsara Ubud has been meticulously designed to be in complete harmony with nature and is a tribute to Bali's centuries-old rice terraces, providing all villas with views of the lush tropical jungle.
Each villa, starting comes with a private heated pool and a spacious outdoor area. Take a dip in the warm pool and relish the beauty of the forest in addition to the soft sounds from a nearby waterfall. Stunning bathrooms feature luxurious Makassar marble, double vanities, deep soaking bathtub and separate indoor & outdoor showers. A mix of contemporary Balinese décor, rich teak furnishings and exotic fabrics create the villas' statement interior. Picture: Floating Breakfast

Meet Our Team

Introducing Kathryn Madigan

Kathryn has been part of the Globetrotter Lifestyle team for 3 years, however she has been planning personalised holidays within the travel industry for many years.

She has a passion for travel and developed a love of Canada after living in Calgary for 3 years with her family - Banff being her favourite place in the world.

Kathryn recently explored South Africa where she drove the Garden Route and visited the must-see destination for wine lovers; the stunning region of Franschhoek.

Last year she experienced the serenity of the Atacama Desert in Northern Chile, along with the cultural heritage and famous Chilean wine tradition just outside of Santiago.

She has passed the love of travel onto her four daughters who travel extensively and live all around the world.

Please reach out to Kathryn for assistance with your next holiday booking.
